

Dream Kitchens

■ A wall of quarter-sawn oak cabinets by Acorn conceals a Sub-Zero refrigerator on the left and a secret door leading to the bedroom on the right.

■ This contemporary Nantucket kitchen, designed by Mark Cutone of BPC-Architecture on Nantucket, is softened by the earth tones in the oak cabinets and the emerald green tumbled glass tile. Open shelving is both practical and "moves away from the conventional kitchen look," says Cutone.

PHOTOGRAPHY BY SAM GRAY

